Company Description / Competitive Strengths

ACP is the nation's leading provider of integrated clinical programs for subacute and chronic rehabilitation providers. These comprehensive therapy programs help skilled nursing facilities, home health agencies, outpatient clinics and other rehabilitation providers improve treatment outcomes, expand therapy services and attract new referrals to create new revenue opportunities. ACP's specialized treatment programs are used in over 3,500 facilities throughout the U.S., including the industry's most recognized providers.

Types of Financial Products & Services Offered

ACP's clinical programs, therapeutic modalities and therapist training enable rehabilitation providers to treat a broader patient population and more medically complex conditions for new treatment opportunities, stronger therapy caseload, new referrals and better census that drives revenue, while proactively managing Q.I.'s, surveys, liability and costs associated with many prevalent conditions.
